Dear Emanuel Tov,

I'm writing to you in the hopes you can take a look at something, that I'v online with a professor of Kabbalah called The Seventh Beggar, and his f Talmudic studies called Olam Chesed Yibaneh; yet they claim they're not the subject, so to write to you, as you're one of the only people they can assess the case properly.

There are many points I've been blessed with understanding, and would l considering that you're a Dead Sea Scroll expert, I'd like to start with on

In the Dead Sea Scrolls 1QIsaa there is an additional yod on the word 'M Martin Hengel and Daniel P. Bailey then translated as 'I anointed'.

Wikipedia - Isaiah_53 1QIsaa the Great Isaiah Scroll

This is a translation I've worked out, based on what is known:

Isaiah 52:13-14 Behold, 'my servant' will deal wisely. He will be 'exalted very high. Just as many were astonished by him, for 'I anointed' him mor and his form more than a son of man.

When this phraseology is returned to what was possibly there originally, paraphrasing Psalms 89:19-21; where when we go from Isaiah 52:10-14, w 'Arm', there are then four keywords used the same.

Psalms 89:19-21 Then you spoke in vision to your saints, and said, "I ha warrior. I have 'exalted' a young man from the people. (20) I have found anointed' him with my holy oil, (21) with whom my hand shall be establis strengthen him.

When this typo is fixed, it makes the ambiguity of who is the "my servant explanatory; that it was king David appointed as the 'Suffering Servant', people, and then to return as the triumphant Messiah to bring in the Mes

This then justifies to me, why in Zechariah 12:8-10 it is king David that that they pierced', and why in many places it says that king David will be

In Isaiah 52:10 I believe the wording 'Yeshuat Eloheinu' was a specific r
