The description j+sus/j+ses is there in Hebrew prophecy, meaning 'a Beast' and 'a Beast that Tares Away' (Matthew 7:6).

The Word 'sus' in Hebrew meaning the 'horses' are compared in many verses (Yeshua); where the real name Yehoshua is part of prophecy, and the word H3444) is the essence of God interacting with the Children of Israel.

In Exodus 15:1-2 the Horses (sus) of Pharaoh were destroyed, and the Lord's Salvation (Yeshua).

In Genesis 17-18 in the promises made to Jacob, the Horse's Heel (j-sus) backwards, stumble, and be captured (Isaiah 8:14-15, 28:13) in the prophecy of the Salvation of God (Yeshua).

In Isaiah 51:8 the moth's grub (ses) shall destroy the very fabric, and the world shall be forever.

In the Book of Revelation 13:18, when it says the world follows the Beast, the Beast, it is three letters in Greek Chi-Zi-S (§ ¼ Â).

This is just a start to some of the prophecies...
