Aaron Abke - Please take into account that the Wheat & Tares, Sheep & Goats were at the beginning of the Church; not that some Antichrist character comes at the end. The authors John, Paul, and Simon petros rewrote.

Simon was called petros in Matthew 16:13-23 to fulfil Zechariah 3:9, of a Branch from the House of David, and in Isaiah 8:14-16 Immanuel's Testimony shall be sealed upon the earth to act as a documented Snare to the world.

Straight after Yeshua paraphrased, 'on this Stumbling Stone (petros), I will build my church down near Hell', he called Simon "Satan" for rebuking him. Zechariah 3:1-2; where we have Yeshua as the Angel of the Lord on the left (Matthew, Mark, Luke), and on the right we have Satan (Pharisaic Accuser of the Messiah). John \(Paul\) Simon petros

James in Hebrew is Jacob, and he was the leader of the Ebionites (Poor People). Zechariah 11:11, 'that the Poor of the Flock, knew it was the word of the Lord.'

As we see in the start of the Book of Acts, Simon helped lead the early Church, but then left to join Saul, and create Christianity in Acts 11:25-26.

Yeshua prophesied to Simon that, 'satan wished to sift him as wheat' (Luke 22:31). This is spelled the same in Hebrew, thus Saul is literally named after the devil, and he created a Covenant of Death about the Chief Corner Stone (Isaiah 28:16).

In the Parable of the Seed Sower, the seed that falls on 'stony ground' has no root. This is plural of petros in Greek, and in the Parable of Building Upon the Rock, we understand that Yeshua is the Rock, and Simon's Pharisaic nature the pebbles.

Due to the Pharisaic tampering they've created the Bed of Adultery in Isaiah 53:10 that the Messiah's death counted for vicarious atonement, yet instead people blame God for it at Judgement, as also stated in the Parable of the Wicked Husband.
