@Christopher Sartain - I appreciate your study into these topics, and find

When you say about this reincarnated being hypothesis, it is more about its spirit upon specific characters to fulfil its will within this world - here where the 'Lord became these characters' (Genesis 39:2 - Joseph, Joshua 1:19 - Judah, 1 Samuel 20:13 - Jonathan, 2 Chronicles 17:3 - Jehoshaphat)

Yehoshua was placed as an Angel of the Lord before the people, with the Exodus 23:20-23.

Our body has an endocannabinoid system, our brain is regulated by cannabis. Omega-3 oils help regulate neural firing - so just like vitamin C deficiency, cannabinoid deficiency causes erratic thinking.

Thus rather than "an altered state", it is more an early understanding that to make us feel balanced, and attuned to the Divine; comparatively our Babylonian chosen death & chemicals as a diet, which causes less cognitive thinking to the Divine.

The ancient Israelite religion was a sacred ceremony about cannabis, where the holder is in the shape of a cannabis leaf (Exodus 25:31-40).

The prophets, priests were anointed with Holy Cannabis Anointing Oil, and Israel, who would then be anointed to receive Divine instruction.

Schizophrenia isn't really understood very well, as some of the voices in the mind (Self), some are our own defence mechanisms (ego), and we're all inside when the brain is properly regulated, we all have the power to hear the Divine. It was about.

Yoga means Connection, and when we have all chakras, & practise all forms (the Dharmic would use Bhang, Hebrews the Holy Anointing Oil, Zoroastrians hear the Source of reality (God) communicating with all of us individually).
