Are there any direct references to the names of the rivers in the Bible? The reason I ask is could we have stemmed from Atlantis/Mu; which was The statues on Easter Island point at its position. This would make far m languages around the pacific are pictograms; which is the simplest form likely the earliest.

I would love it, if people could check there for Atlantis/Mu; I would love it would be in alignment with the magnetic points on the earth. There is above where I think it could be.
