Dude... i have some highly classified info on some goverment UFO projec plasma shielding a triangle craft causing a negative G-force effect, to th means even the occupants inside can take 90% more G forces... imagine Why aren't we using this stuff for space travel publicly? Are we being he things on earth are not peaceful enough yet... who knows... i think if i si couple days i can figure it out. i'm out, hope to hear from ya soon man, l also theorized this may well be why E.T.'s are always documented as ext weight you carry, the faster you can go... the less G-force that is applie weigh less! Less matter/mass! What they need to do is put some type of craft so that the occupants get to zero point gravity, and can travel as fa force whatsoever. p.s. the government needs my ideas... lol i can get us 20 years... just teach me the advanced hidden physics. I just love it whe i live for.
