you need some serious spiritual and emotional awakening if you think that with Satans minions and Gods angels. That's all i have to say... you have everything that has happened to you, and never stopped to think about how and how true some things you hear just might be. If an alien landed and i'd know exactly what he's talking about. He's the person/s we call Gods times. It's very simple. As we started our becoming of who we are, we began emotions and feelings, and we began to document things we were seeing (phase of awakening) and feeling. Now 2000 years ago, there were no philosophy books... if you had a temptation you documented it as someone or something. Why?! because we began to understand what was right and what was wrong. As animal instincts, we embraced our true(modern) human consciousness. Since that occur, and we began to evolve, we were feeling and seeing things we'd never before. It's very simple dude! please evolve with me! Think outside of Earth man's ego's, power, and greed. There's nothing to gain from holding onto old beliefs, analyzing them for what they really are. All you're doing is taking everything and applying your same old religious beliefs to every bit of it.
