I see 10 billion sperm racing for an egg... and wonder how in 2 different and mothers... the same sperm made it to the same egg... and gave birth

Now... I am the first to admit that I am extremely scientific and skeptical science and my own beliefs/knowledge/facts. Skeptical only means I phil conclusions daily... not that I don't believe. So, my question is. How are circumstances I explained above. I hope no one says... "because God imp or.. "because your soul re-attatches to your body". I believe in the mind/ you can change my mind, have a crack at it! I'm up for a healthy debate.
