Mayan and Eygptians had prophocies of a messiah coming with knowledge a cross use to mean infinity and a monument and in ancient hebrew dont know why it disappered out of the current langauge?

Eygptians had been told by osiris that he would return as did the Mayans by Itzamna both teaching wisdom and a son of the creator!

after the flood the bible says we landed on a great plain some of the earliest cultures,were where there was cultavation india is spread from there if you look at the ancient hebrew site you will see it is pictrograms as ar therefore eden/alantis/mu was in the pacific as most culture next to that and easter island's statues point towards it as light houses for sailors oh yeh the mayans had the 13 dimensions with pacal yet he said he was

Christ added 2 commandments and if you read my artical on the dimensio there there should be one more commandment making 13 and the dimensi beliefs

The Mayans Calender ends in 2012 as does the Eygptians

The photon belt hits around the same time so all books match

There are loads more bits have a look it is amazing what you can find
