Yea, this is the age of the culmination of Earth's destiny. And indeed, the prophecy about Armageddon is true to a certain extent. In olden interpretations, the destruction of the Earth matter-wise, which sounded morbid. Because in our world is ceasing to be as we move upwards in vibrational frequency. Actually, the City of Light status, a university for advanced souls. Souls who choose to learn 3rd-dimensional lessons are leaving the Earth en masse, up until year 2012.

As energy is vibration, vibration is sound, and sound create words, words we intuitively realise the primal vibration of creativity. This is reflected in musical instruments. One can surely recall the vibrational depth and attunement of drums and bells. They connect us to our divine origin, the oneness before we came to Earth. Look at the world's ancient tribal traditions and mystical religions. Drumming is a sacred art.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word is OM...

Om mani peme hung.
