Then no one here truly understands the Indigo Child. It's in our hearts a place it will ever be. I do not hang a guitar around my neck in the hopes the guitar because it is a beautiful invention and a beautiful gift. I do not special powers... I see where this is going... it's not good. Perhaps this under another category... this is not the representative views of the Indigo more confusion. I'm at such a loss of words with the analogies that have even begin to concentrate on how it is we got here in the first place. Giving someone a guitar to play to pour their emotions into and stimulate different things... if you need material objects to make you believe that special... then you truly are not. One only need to reach as far as the truth actuality... one needs not to reach at all. Success gains it's beauty and Naturalness... what happened... where have you gone? Why is the human

Suzy... it's not okay to just not understand... there is no peace in divisio

Suzy, what you speak of is not what I am talking about. You wear stones sentimental value. You pick up bird feathers and pretty things along your innocence, joy and glee.

I am adressing the points made that crystals should be worn for energy.. we cannot have without them... that's simply false.
