Many MANY current customs, practices, and holidays are Pagan in origin you practice them, and the faith, is what makes it particular to your relig

Going trick-or-treating as a child doesn't make you Pagan, and yet the e Hallowe'en stems from a Celtic Pagan festival honoring the dead. There examples.

There are as many different types of Paganism as there are Christianity.

the Celts used, or by the names the Native Americans used.

Christians tend to see time as linear and Pagans see it as circular. All and die, and the process is repeated throughout nature in all living thing

I believe the core values and beliefs of most religions are similar.
