If people didnt know if you translate Jesus to ancient hebrew it is an ins

J=dosen't exsist

E=a path or way of something

S=spike or thorn

U=person

S=spike or thorn again, so if you imagine the word is actualy sus is him on the cross

Yeshua on the other hand means salvation in hebrew and if you translate it to ancient hebrew it means to leave a hook in time so if you read this people please call him by is real name if you do know

HE was cool and hung around with real people; who if he wasnt would ne

Yeshua sounds cool and there is a lot in a name

It is the first sound you hear, so it makes a lot of who you are.

People think they are their name, if you ask them who are you?

so it affects the way they act and also the way we relate to people

Considering acording to the bible god gave us the first written langauge

Which would be ancient hebrew as it is just pictograms simular to eygpti early langauges

So sound and image have meaning with in a word, have a look at the anc
