The real Love of Heaven...

Part 1

Skipping forward some, I am intrigued by the king of the jungle, the might keep many females in his pride. It is the way of the jungle to do so. yet, this on earth yet. Some do and it works for them, we are told. Others go told me once the Angels play as the lions do, they come together so natural wedding bands or rings that bind and torment, no contracts, no grasping them is as free as with the mating of lions. It is as free as the cultures we think of as primitive, yet do they not hold more of the greater truth? If it loved, then why not love all who vibrate at our same frequency and stop please just one mate. Stop the insanity of marriage and be as a small child again, be free to find happiness and joy, pleasures and delight, do no harm alive again. The cool thing is you are free to choose. I may just chose what you see.

I too have died and come back to earth again and understand what it is like we exist in. More than most, I suppose what happens is you appreciate each the fullest extent, knowing this may be the last breath or experience you choose not to miss a single one. To breathe in each experience and take new things I'd never have considered before I died. I live life now moment to moment simply was alive. Life slows and is serene and still when you can see things that was capable of love, now I am the embodiment of love. Argue if you wish it back within my heart to share with each of you. I do not fear death, I'm Looking toward new beginnings while cherishing the sunset, as well as, e

A time to sleep, a time to love, a time for all things...

Goodnight,
