(3:24) And they walked in the midst of the fire, praising God, and blessing

(3:25) Then Azarias stood up, and prayed on this manner; and opening his mouth to the fire said,

(3:26) Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers: thy name is worthy to be praised evermore:

(3:27) For thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done to us: thy ways are right, and all thy judgments truth.

(3:28) In all the things that thou hast brought upon us, and upon the holy city Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgment: for according to truth and justice thou hast done these things upon us because of our sins.

(3:29) For we have sinned and committed iniquity, departing from thee.

(3:30) In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commandments: we have done as thou hast commanded us, that it might go well with us.

(3:31) Wherefore all that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done in true judgment.

(3:32) And thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, most cruel and to an unjust king, and the most wicked in all the world.

(3:33) And now we cannot open our mouths, we are become a shame and reproach to them that worship thee.

(3:34) Yet deliver us not up wholly, for thy name's sake, neither disannul thy name.

(3:35) And cause not thy mercy to depart from us, for thy beloved Abraham and Isaac's sake, and for thy holy Israel's sake;

(3:36) To whom thou hast spoken and promised, that thou wouldest multiply thy people as the sand of the sea, and as the sand that lieth upon the seashore.

(3:37) For we, O Lord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under reproach because of our sins.

(3:38) Neither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before thee, and to find mercy.

(3:39) Nevertheless in a contrite heart and an humble spirit let us be accepted of thee.

(3:40) Like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in the sacrifices of sheep, so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and grant that we may wholly be accepted, and not be confounded that put their trust in thee.

(3:41) And now we follow thee with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face.

(3:42) Put us not to shame: but deal with us after thy lovingkindness, and according to thy mercies.

(3:43) Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and give glory to thy name: all them that do thy servants hurt be ashamed;

(3:44) And let them be confounded in all their power and might, and let their name be despised.

(3:45) And let them know that thou art God, the only God, and glorious over all.

(3:46) And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the tow, and small wood;

(3:47) So that the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine

(3:48) And it passed through, and burned those Chaldeans it found about

(3:49) But the angel of the Lord came down into the oven together with A smote the flame of the fire out of the oven;

(3:50) And made the midst of the furnace as it had been a moist whistling touched them not at all, neither hurt nor troubled them.

(3:51) Then the three, as out of one mouth, praised, glorified, and blessed saying,

(3:52) Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers: and to be praised and

(3:53) And blessed is thy glorious and holy name: and to be praised and
