Very true!

Considering how much a lotus flower looks like a woman, then how will we understand our books written by women to understand them, that should be in the Bible. Suppress women and the worst is most don't even know. Lol

So give women back their respect as prophetess and teachers of man also. Get this world back on track.

And according to texts that are there...

After the rapture should remove all judgemental and all that can't understand. It should be fun after and many of us see this.

Even if it takes longer we can always try getting the real truths back again. What's been stolen i.e. genesis lol is atomic theory and quantum sciences we see from science. So how much has been removed is my question..
