Ok things to do!

1) Apricot kernels and other pips provide a natural form of cyanide, that body, eating plenty will reduce and can stop cancer.

2) something we have noticed also is possibly the cure for aids as well as is sapoins; now Bach made a list of these and they clean the blood stream blood cells to fight the cancer it self.

Hope that helps, you can find their research yet that is simplified...from fact my cousin died of cancer so my family did lots of research.

That is the apricot kernels&

The bread of life is made of horse chestnuts from what we can access; and researched our self currently.

Yet you have to be also aware that most alien elements need removing from alcohol and especially all them daft drugs, that one leads to the next as to absorbed them; which with the plants seeds them self s are contained.

So get bags of apricot kernels and not too many will clean the blood, the this it is known to stop cancers forming and continuing.
