Since the other day went to paint the items to use; in making a landscape telling&.

Then realized that you couldn't paint Smiles, so now you can...changed to be able to now paint anything from 10x10 pixels! which is small as you are getting; any smaller then that and we won't see

That way anyone can design and paint their own avatar and smiles since a PNG&this makes it easy to link and add in an article. So we get cool avatars...well depending how much you practice painting. me know get involved a bit more; then we can have more fun....

Oneness = 1 + 1 = 2 + 2 = 4 + 4 = infin8??
