who would want too ascend into heaven and miss out on all the fun every mess with nature much more...we are a good surfer

Then guess all would be back to Politics and Spirituality as one regardless government building, if they all get washed away...

So on the one hand, while they implement our own destruction....

Due to this politics can be paid off more to hurt the one friend it is said

Being the 5th commandment, which many fail to notice look after your father Yeshua said we have one father...and the commandment is actually written land"....Mother earth is that in question...so again if both were one again like this for example...say you become pope...yes you have tons of political and know he has....yet then when if you were a noble man and people consider symbolic representative of God and not the devil its self, for many in the recorded...in Revelations we lived most of this have watched it happen to choice of our own...as we would have avoided it...to be honest....yet is a

We love everyone, just feel that peoples are a law unto them self's....yet looking at....

As if a law unto them self is issued by said persons heart, then the heart inform of correct thinking.....

yet when we have a broken chalice, to begin with being that of the broken Babylon, so much so...it is hard to see the wood for the trees....Alcohol or religious shall drink! Those who drink old wine, speak of old things!

We need an understanding between us of a council of Zion...again as we Polish made and have succeed making a round table for peace talks....th very proud of them in trying...as this is an optimum way to communicate

Yet if we check their history books which are very much like our own...th between the different sect of Christianity, Judaism and the rest getting n

Now when that is the conscious format a person will choose and put on that are taught to believe they come from....

some of us are stronger and don't keep coming back again...not that religion is ascending...just it is confusing after reading what is required of a person we are repeating what we all should have known and wanted as children

So lets try our hardest to make it a place all children will grow up as one

As in politics it will also hold us back as it says this country makes more to compete in such things we will never win....

maybe with more women before hand this wouldn't have happened...yet men and to walk alone if needs must or didn't... as in we have so many languages each other from one country to another....we try our hardest to learn the any persons languages, we meet....yet still why?

yet it caught me when I watched a mother teaching the child German....v communicate in tongues using the frequency scale, the same as with birds posted after me explaining (God bless her

Me and dogs can, ask me friends who observe their Dog chat with me or extra closes on words that don't need it so later after children age, we d

Very strange...or is it or is it all politics and greed to begin...let separate state?

Why would anyone want to make it that the family separated? Which are brother and sister...so its mad when they divided us and call us different and the only way for any of us to ever get ascended truly, is to come down with the peoples....

so if we can clear this gap that divided the separation of religion and politics the fore front of all motive with in our own states, to start bridging the gap one big problem in the past though we do see is the antics of tyranny as Pazand....being a very old text explaining much of what has taken place. religion as politics and not as oneness".....

Oneness is all is one....the moment we start making laws as Moses did u GOD!!!) is the moment it got daft....

Why Yeshua, Mohammed, American Indian texts and what must be millions in visions and prophecies....

yet none notice this and is carried on lets add another law if that one do well it may be what they call an ism, yet Tao or Dao of the Tao Te Ching as true Buddhism can't be an ism!...it is a philosophy in state of mind and people will want to be in unity if the state lets them be in unity...

Do believe this had succeed and there was a vast unity taking place until Now when in the middle of all of this we have major thorn being the Vatican wealth of private motives..let this be a centre in the world as it is and that's what's happening..

Think then funny thing in me stating that we would like to be pope, is that we want us to we would and do believe it may be meant..as when watching How on earth oh yes sorry it is earth not the ways of God...a pope is chosen clearly not a group or community..must be mad...and why we got so mad The fly's need clearing out the building the love needs putting back in... Why don't churches get full they are boring..why the people choose it like want a place to go out and communicate in a light heart fashion with others happens to our community surrounding us..each and every last one of us these full of dead men's bones being the idea of Christ on a cross is so

So where and why do churches shut their doors..when these are the places communities were built on.. maybe if they weren't so full of gold from gold place and selling poor peoples wealth for money?

What would any true man of God need money for? Take neither rooks nor lot..and this is not doing globally...we don't wish to get mad as the last news on boxing day and "honestly" don't want arrows to go flying from us me writing..lol

Point being this isn't some joke on our own behalf and never has...yet so smirk when they got in..we see what is there..do you see us? So as for us sit waiting and when more of said peoples, who claim to be help realize that might finally get started....
