Ok the plan sort of goes like this...new Articles or Forum Post can be instantly made into a Wiki Page all you do is add ( [-[ ] ) around any word wiki page unless already done....So in the end we will have

1)Articles Works by many of belief's idea's and things that help people...

2)Forum Conversation Articles

3)Any word in them that may need explain Wiki can be added to the

The idea is to make clear levels...some bits need modifying alot and we you see if Forum for instance that needs more clarity....

Can then be added into the wiki...these pages can Wiki page added by any of as and after these modification take place...

To make it that a wiki-page can go back to be published as an Article...s arrange...not they, as us, is them...say friend and things happenz...
