Take from references within all our books, as much that is symbolic in our language is the same within any shaman language.

So symbols are normally related, yet it also takes knowing someone or their own. depending that is unless you are speaking with a prophet in which influences within that dream, that may or may not take place, to give the subconsciousness.

As many things can effect dreaming, its like this quote:

Quote:

What a man spends all day looking at, so shall he dream.

So in understanding the event surrounding you in your life helps, analyze it yet then also look at the bigger picture. As parts some times parts interlaced, you have been having or really wanted, yet deny your own spirit to accept you do; at that time, that is how you are really feeling.
