Quote:

Jesus" is nothing more than a pseudo substitute for the true name YAHSH

"You should not use the name Ge-sus because the Ge means earth or soil and sus means swine or pig in Latin, so you are saying "earth pig".

"Jesus is a corrupted name derived from the Greek IESOUS. Ies, or iysh means man while sus -soos means horse, so when you speak that name, you are referring to "man horse" or "man beast"."

"The name IESOUS or "hey-soos" means "hey horse". Just look at this explanation (Heb. hey-soos/Grk. Iesous/ Eng. Jesus) is a vain hope for safety; neither does it give great strength."

Many in the Hebrew roots and sacred name circles have continually and firmly reinforced the Jesus/zeus fallacy by supplying supposed scholarship to their explanatory notes section of their translations.

It has been stated by some that the Name Jesus is a false Hellenic (Greek) name conspiratorially created by the early church, in an attempt to give glory to the goddess Iaso while intentionally censoring the "true name" of Messiah which was the name of the Hebrew god. Some have said, that since the Name of Jesus shares the same letter signature as the Greek god zeus' name, that at the very least, it constitutes a pagan name for Jesus.
