ok. you are only accountable for what you know and and innocent baby d except that it is hungry, hurting or in some other form of need.

Because we are accountable for what we know, may I ask this? You seem information that did not come to mind to me in the middle of the night so are you doing?"

My whole point is that if the world would pool it's knowledge and resourc could be solved.

I am not nearly as ignorant as you might have thought by my quick note.
seeing everything either.

The poor cow thing, well it is my personal beleif that they are here for m seems obvious you don't eat meat, there is at least one point that we wil know that if there were a cow and a child in a burning barn, the child wo cow only if possible. You would act in the same manner. If you believe important then that would be another discussion.

Tell me this, in what religion (and I know it is either buddist or hindu) t different life forms? Doesn't this faith also teach levels of greatness. T creature and then another depending on how you led your previous life?
than a cow.

When you set up something to call holy it is idol worship. Does your god worship a cow over him? I'm not being a smart alec, I just want to know

Please answer.
