Many people believe that a human sacrifice was needed to redeem us to Yeshua stated he came for. This only came about from the Pharisee perspective. John the Baptist and Yeshua preached repentance for the forgiveness of sins. This say that makes it so Evident that this is not the case as later taught by Paul.

Mat 9:13 but go and learn what this is; I desire mercy and not sacrifice. I do not desire the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Yeshua said this to the Pharisees in the hopes they would know the Bible. However, though it may sound strange, as this was what they were supposed to know from the Bible.

Mat 12:7 But if you had known what this is, "I desire mercy and not sacrifice," you would not have condemned those who are not guilty.

Later he asked them again, yet still no reply from them, this time including the Jews. They wanted to have him put to death. We are told in John, as he was a member of the Sanhedrin, that it was Caiaphas who originally came up with the idea to have it that one man die for the sins of the whole nation, not this was the plan of God as portrayed by Paul.

John 11:49-52 And one of them, Caiaphas, being the high priest of that year, said unto them, Not know anything at all, (50) nor do you consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation perish. (51) And he did not say this because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation only, but also that He should gather together in one the children of Israel who were scattered abroad.

If you can now see, it was not Yeshua's purpose to be killed as a sacrifice. He was not offering himself a sin offering. So what did he mean and what was he referring too, was to God and not sacrifice.

Hos 6:6 for I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God is my desire.

Yeshua was pointing people to God and not him self, as many now believe. Also he made it clear that the knowledge of God is more important than sacrifice. He came to show us some of the wisdom of God, so we killed him as a sin offering.

Pro 21:3 to do justice and judgment is more pleasing to Jehovah than sacrifice.

Isa 1:11-17 to what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to me? sa burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I do not delight in lambs, or of he-goats. (12) When you come to appear before me, who ha hand, to trample my courts? (13) Bring no more vain sacrifice; incense new moon and Sabbath, the going to meeting; I cannot endure evil and th new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates; they are a trouble to them. (15) And when you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood. (16) Wash y clean; put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do seek judgment, reprove the oppressor. Judge the orphan, plead for the w

Here we have two accounts of where God has asked for judgment and jus sacrifice. So when Christ said he came to fulfill the law he was asking fo been disguised by the Pharisees.

Mar 12:32-34 And the scribe said to Him, Right, Teacher, according to t God is one, and there is no other besides Him. (33) And to love Him wi the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and t himself, is more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices. (34) And se intelligently, Jesus said to him, you are not far from the kingdom of God question Him any more.

This is quite evident that the scribe who answered was on the right track Yeshua was saying, so again confirming this same principle, that the kno valuable then sacrifices. Now many might ask didn't Isaiah prophecies th go through it step by step and what was meant.

Isa 53:1-12 who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of Jeho comes up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground majesty that we should see Him, nor an appearance that we should desire and rejected of men; a Man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as from Him, He being despised, and we esteemed Him not. (4) Surely He l carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and a wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the ch was on Him; and with His stripes we ourselves are healed.

Now here this is quite clear it was Yeshua and the things that occurred a

(6) All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, each one to his laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

Now since the coming of Christ as he put him self it has caused division follow the Pharisee and not the word he spoke.

(7) He was oppressed, and He was afflicted; yet He opened not His mou to the slaughter; and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so He open was taken from prison and from judgment; and who shall declare His gen out of the land of the living; for the transgression of my people He was s grave with the wicked and with a rich one in His death; although He had any deceit in His mouth. (10) Yet it pleased Jehovah to crush Him; to give forth His soul as a guilt-offering. He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, Jehovah shall prosper in His hand.

Now this point shown often, that we make him grief as we make his soul spoken here. Too many after reading the words of the Pharisees this may still seem that unless blood is given no sin can be cleansed, yet not states.

(11) He shall see the fruit of the travail of His soul. He shall be fully satisfied, His righteous Servant justify for many; and He shall bear their iniquities.

Then if you realize that we are told by Yeshua, that we will be judged by when Paul and John is removed it is clear that what is taught cause many what Yeshua taught.

(12) Therefore I will divide to Him with the great, and He shall divide the spoil because He has poured out His soul to death; and He was counted among the transgressors. He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for transgressors.

Now this end part may make many think, that what was taught by the Pharisees Yeshua blood covers their sins. Yet this is not the case instead it means the father. It is like this parable Yeshua stated not all the debt is taken.

Luk 16:1-8 And He also said to His disciples, there was a certain rich man, to whom he was accused to him, that he had wasted his goods. (2) And he called him and said, Give an account of your stewardship, for you must give an account. And the steward said within himself, what shall I do? For my lord is taking away from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg. (4) I know what I will do, so that when they take away from me the stewardship they may receive me into their houses. (5) So he called his debtors and said; to the first, how much do you owe my lord? (6) And he said, Fifty barrels of oil. And he said to him, Take your bill and sit down quickly and write fifty. (7) And he said to the second, how much do you owe? And he said A hundred cors of wheat. And he said to him, Take your bill and write eighty. (8) And the unjust steward's lord commended him because he had been wise. For the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

So you still have to pay the steward and the steward is God, Christ may be a good man, yet the final debt must still be paid.
