a poem from my book ponder awhile

Religions

The entire Buddhist monk's life is but a preperation,
For his deathpoint or moment of seperation.

The Jains have santhara,
Quitting life consciously to join with the paramatma.

Hindus go into samadhi,
Where there is no Congress, Shiv Sena, Bjp or Samajwadi.

The Christian merges with the holy spirit,
Peace ,no more desperate.

The Sufi mystic to become one,
Dances ,twirls,prays,trances to get the job done.

There is no need to change your faith,
And on your old religion lay a wraith.
