It's raining now, but I can feel the winter lurking around. It's hiding, just waiting for the right time to cover the world in snow.

And as I'm preparing for this to happen, I'm looking for winter music.

What artists/songs/albums do you associate with the winter?

'Kid A' by Radiohead is the first album that comes to mind, in addition to much of James Blake's dicography.

SinÃ©ad O'Connor's cover of "All Apologies" is also a great winter-song.

What does your winter-playlist sound like?
