You said: "If we all understood everything about sickness, free will, death, hell, why would we bother to talk to God? The same goes for any relationship. If you know everything there is to know about a person then we wouldn't bother talking to them. Why does God want us to ask HIM all these questions?!"

You need to have a relationship with God in order to know him. If you know your husband, you still will talk to him, why? because there is a loving bond. God himself already has answered all these questions.. ( Everything I am aware of is just else but what HE has said in simple terms, however; with my own scientific knowledge just a matter of recognizing this through our intellect and... to know WHY things are known NOW and no 2000 years ago.

The beauty is that through meditation you can experience God.
