Buddha (Discernment) and Yeshua (Salvation) both taught similarly; it is created around them that taught differently.

Both taught selflessness, to seek enlightenment, that Works/Karma lead attachment leads to the Divine, to meditate, give up wealth, to work toward goal.

There is no self or to hate lives a life (psychic) they both use the word heart contextually to reach that enlightenment. Both teach to meditate on the infinite consciousness. Both break down the previous religious misunderstandings, question. They both taught the golden rule, 'do unto others as you wish done unto you'. Not to strike back those who do you wrong. Come hate with love. More blessed to give than to receive. Both taught the Way (Dharma). etc...
