In the Bible the Holy Anointing oil Exodus 30:23-25 has cannabis in it (etymology of the word cannabis).

Christ and his disciples healed with it Mark 6:13, and the early church members were called Christians (James 5:14).

In Zoroastrian texts there is a plant called Haoma which is a reed based which caused them to write prophetic poetry the same.

In Hindu texts we have Soma which again helped cause the Rishi to connect and write spiritual poetry.

Buddha had Bhang, which is cannabis leaves crushed with coconut milk to make a drink.

Muhammad told us we will sit on couches, drinking ginger (zanjabil) and honey.

Thus many of the religions wouldn't really have existed without the help of cannabis.
