The reason the churches are so divided is the book is divided. We have Yeshua and all the prophets saying one thing. Then we have Paul saying something completely contradictory to Yeshua. John is easily mistaken as being the disciple of Yeshua, yet is a Pharisee on a number of points. A lot of the gospel of John is made up. Then we have Peter (=stone) being the rock of offence and a stone of stumbling more than God.

It is not exactly clear, is it, there are times I put my head in my hands, and for others. As it is not through lack of understanding on my own part, yet trying to help others is hard.

One major reason is Paul and Peter covered their back as such and stuck to their own truth.

The only way you can find it to start, is to have a pre-knowledge of heaven. Then with a lot of careful study and then to have precept upon precept, so that you can know God.

So yes the churches are divided, you have some that try to stick to what John is truth and Yeshua said that.

Some that follow Paul more, some that follow John more, some that follow Yeshua.

Yet in most of them the truth of what Yeshua showed and preached, has been lost to the Pharisees.

So in actual fact most are wrong, as when is the church taken into the street to turn people to God by show love and being a light with out asking anything.

Most churches put people off God and turn them to man, i.e. Yeshua. As they subconsciously get confused as there are contradictions, and they spend a lot of time right in bible meetings. They have no time to go out and help people; they just ask Yeshua to forgive them, when in fact they should ask God at night all the time.

So a summary of what I am saying is the churches are the daughters of man.

We don't need buildings to praise God; we don't need confining in our families.

We need to all do good; where and when ever we can, to take the love of God and not hide away and keep it in a little cliquey group as Paul told people to do.

Instead share with everyone, give up wealth and start living as one people.

Not worship Yeshua, yet God!

Not confusing our children who feel God in side them and telling them to

When it says to not forsake the gathering of your brethren, this is serious way to make people attend.

We are all brethren you do not need a building to prove this or a group to isolate our selves.

So our brethren should be everyone our love needs to be for all as Yeshua

Anyone reading this and feeling they are follower of God and Yeshua.

If you follow Paul, John or Peter, stop; for unless you exceed the Pharisees

God is one, heaven is oneness, Yeshua taught this, Paul and John stopped
