As far as I understand based on prophecy, as Armageddon kicks off in Zechariah 14:7, a supernova as a second sun in Zechariah 14:7.

Betelgeuse just had a major burp, which I would say are imminent signs of the end.

'Astronomers have analyzed data from the Hubble Space Telescope and other telescopes and they believe the star experienced a titanic surface mass ejection, losing a significant portion of its visible surface. <https://edition.cnn.com/2022/08/12/world/science-space/betelgeuse/index.html>

Next we might get gravitational waves from the Orion constellation, as with the last burp, and dimming.
