To many Christians this may sound strange at first, as what you have been told (and also) is that because Christ died for you, from this you may receive eternal life.

Now what I need to say is the truth and it comes from Christ him self, so I have to say.

To begin with I should explain why this is not true, this parable that Yes Quote:

Luke 20:9-16 And He began to speak to the people this parable: A certain man went out to plant a vineyard and let it out to vinedressers. And he went into a far country for a long time. And he sent a servant to the vinedressers, so that they should give him the fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers beat him and sent him away empty. (11) And again he sent another servant, but they also beat him and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. (12) And they also wounded him and cast him out. (13) And the lord of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that they will respect him when he comes.' But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours.' (15) So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then shall the lord of the vineyard do to them? (16) He shall kill the vinedressers and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard this, they said, 'Surely not!'

You see if you understand this, Christ is the son that was sent, the previous servants.

This means that he prophesied that the Pharisees would kill him, so they did. No thief will enter heaven as not to steal is a commandment!! So the whole world knows that Christ is completely and utterly contrary to what Christ taught, so if you follow him up. What has happened is the Pharisees reiterated Christ teachings, yet no one has entered heaven.

Now the reason this exists, that we have an inheritance in Christ is from the law. Quote:

Heb 9:15 and for this cause He is the Mediator of the new covenant, so that we receive the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, and that we may receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

You see Paul preached we have an inheritance in Christ as his brethren and said this.

Quote:

John 11:49-52 And one of them, Caiaphas, being the high priest of that year, said unto them, (49) 'Not know anything at all, (50) nor do you consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that we should not be without a king.'

for the people, and not that the whole nation perish. (51) And he did not being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation only, but also that He should gather together in one the children of Israel who were scattered abroad.

Paul was originally under Caiaphas and originally followed his command, Paul had a miraculous change on the road to Damascus. Now if this were years before, he went to preach? Then, when he did do finally something Christ had taught; he changed it and taught contrary to Christ. What has happened is that Paul re-established the Pharisee church, he did not follow Christ, instead he changed it and this is one of the clearest points there to get a nasty shock when they reach the end of their lives. If you feel that I take from Christ you are sadly mistaken, I don't instead of what I previously said and ask those who have an ear, to please tell others. If you still don't understand just ask, I will be happy to answer any questions. We can get this thing resolved, we may stop a lot of fighting world wide.
