As the Angel of the Lord specifically named in multiple religions before mankind, I keep being told by the Divine, "it is unavoidable."

Because I'm an eternal optimist, I'm always looking for ways that mankind's problems, and maybe with some latest opportunity, we could make everyone better.

Yet if I deal with what is stated in the religious texts, most of you haven't because many think their life is about their own goals, instead of God's.

I've been sent as a final warning of where religion became corrupted before Betelgeuse will be seen to have gone supernova.

Prophecy relays that I'm here to show people what is required to be worthy of many to soon cease to exist.

I'm really not very good at marketing all of this, and could do with a who'd honour the world's religions, and care about everyone's existence.
