The reason God is everything, where God contains both light & dark, is that we've been lead to believe.

In the beginning of reality from the ancient ideas, like the Greeks for example Everything was random chaos (Nyx), and then Heaven was formed (Uranus) the Source (Chronos) - which created time & order.

We've been lead to understand later theology - that there is a God of the Living and God of the underworld (Hades).

Where we've been taught to believe in one of them, when a lot believe in the God of the Living has took over this world, and the God of the Living has weakness.

The reality is everything is inside Chronos (EL - God Most High), and we are worshipping the Divine Beings (Elohim), as that is henotheism/polytheism.
