Having gone vegan after reading the Bible, I agree there is a reason to q Yeshua said he ate meat & drank alcohol, whilst John the Baptist didn't ( helped them catch fish (Luke 5:1-11), fed the five thousand bread & fish 6:31 44; Luke 9:12 17) and though Yeshua came from the Nazar-Essenes, believed what we consume doesn't defile someone (Matthew 15:10-20, Ma

The early Church was vegetarian & a continuation from the Essenes; they based on Zechariah 11:11, where the 'Poor of the Flock', knew Yeshua's (Zechariah 11:10 + 12-14), not to act as a 'ransom sacrifice' as the Phar Simon peter) would have us believe.

I went vegan as the very first commandment the Creator gave us was to e (Genesis 1:29), where we're biologically designed to eat them as food; c (death) isn't good for us, and within the Bible it was left as optional.

Before the Flood they lived around a thousand years, after the flood whe death as the Noah story includes, they only lived one hundred years.

At the time of Pythagoras, there was an island of frugivores living to aro was with dried foods, and still consuming alcohol.

Genesis 8:20-21 the Creator recognizes that even after flooding earth, b created between the Light & Dark (Divine & Evil), mankind is made from inclination to be evil.

After the flood the Creator allowed us to eat animals, until we come to th death will be removed, and only those who are not Ravenous Predators ( into the Age to Come (Isaiah 35:9).

Though we've been allowed to eat animals down near Hell, it doesn't mea some of us are Adharmic Prytsim, and according to multiple religions glo

Fire removes the Blood Thirsty Predators.

In Genesis 9:2-3 it is clear that animals will fear us from that time, and in the Messianic Age, the Creator will then make a new Covenant where t safely again.

After Egypt the Israelites demanded meat (Numbers 11), and Mosaic Law specific animals for eating; the 6th Commandment should have been appl religion globally, and this is where the prophets kept insisting that the C Laws (Isaiah 66:3-4, Jeremiah 7:21-23, Jeremiah 12:4, Isaiah 1:13-17, H Proverbs 15:17, etc).

During the 1st Temple period the book of Numbers was a historical accou included the first reference to killing animals for atonement, and then du Levitical priesthood canonized the book of Leviticus - where it teaches b to Moses's standards.

We can see that the Babylonian Jews had changed their religion to be ab there were rivers of blood flowing from the 2nd Temple.

Around one hundred & fifty years after Babylon, we can see the creation Pharisees & Sadducees; comparatively we can see Daniel was vegetarian drink alcohol (Daniel 1:8-16).

Daniel 9 is quoting the timeline of Jeremiah 25, where after the 70 years come against the three foolish priestly systems (Zechariah 11:8 - Pharis who thought it was fine to drink alcohol & eat meat.

At the end of Jeremiah 25 it is prophesying the Messiah causing the 'Wai we find prophesied at the start of Zechariah 11, where they didn't care a slaughtering as atoning sacrifices.

When Yeshua called the Sanhedrin Prytsim it has contexts of murdering a quoting Hosea 6:6, we need to take into account Hosea 6:9 is also about since Babylon, who challenged their ritualistic sacrifices.

Yeshua challenged the Sanhedrin for saying that the murdering of the pr sacrifices in Matthew 23:27-38, Matthew 15:1-9, Mark 7:1-13, and the Pa Husbandman (Matthew 21:33-46, Mark 12:1-12, Luke 20:9-19).

When Yeshua healed the leper with Holy cannabis Anointing Oil (Mark 6:1 30:23-25), and told them to go to the Levitical Priesthood, who had forgo Holy Anointing Oil or psychedelic Showbread properly, he is saying it as (Matthew 8:4, Mark 1:44, Luke 5:14).

When Yeshua said do the offering Moses instructed, that was in referenc where because the Levitical priests had made up the book of Leviticus in assumption that he was meaning to go do sacrifice isn't what was being i testimony against them, as they'd forgotten what the religion was about.

We can show evidence from four thousand years ago that the Chinese use leprosy, and when the Holy Anointing Oil is made properly with cannabis, causes it to become a super infusion of different herbal medicines, that leprosy, MS, etc.
