Ok this is what I saw in heaven and not so much from religious books, the Heaven is in 3 levels as such, the 1st is unconditional love, the second is God, a true name for heaven is Oneness.

Now according to most people's ideas of angels, the spirits on the first tier are angels.

Though the ones with real authority sit around the throne of God; these are the Bible. In Hinduism these are called Vishnu, Shiva and all the reflective could go through every religion and relate how these are referred to in them. So what does this all look like, now that is tricky as each person will see it to be, else it wouldn't be heaven for them.

Yet if you are interested what it looks like under the illusion of the person. It is all light sort of like rose quartz in a way, yet with rainbows flashing. OO(I am starting to sound like this :)

Quote:

Rev 21:18-22 And the foundation of its wall was jasper; and the city was (19) And the foundations of the wall of the city had been adorned with four foundations, jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, hyacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. (21) And the gates were pearls. Respectively, each one of the gates was one pearl. And the street was as transparent glass. (22) And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty

It is so hard to describe, as you can tell from all the different descriptions. Angels though are pure strands of energy, these are like flavours are or are strands of energy, of what that angel contains.

Imagine a ball of wool made of light, with tons of pieces of different strands which shows who the angel is.

= fairy, as angels are light and don't need shape
