about the greys Dude... i am still a bit confused over religion... until i go face and ask them some much desired questions, and much needed answers. I believe the greys ARE satan... they seem to have total disregard to the human beings. They might be a class 5 civilization, at the highest technological level they can do as they please with no one elses say... but i believe they are outnumbered and nearing... as preached in the bible. God is the caring creatures.. us include keep pets! you think other civilizations have pets?! And someday we will eradicate his species from the universe because of his wrong doings... so freakin brutal, and it's hard to share without being ridiculed.. i know you know because we seem to know the same things. Edit: Or God could well be a know that good and evil does not only exist on this planet. I can't believe shown.
