1). Ok so did the devil create it s self? Or did a serpent eat rotten fruit What happens if a snake eats rotten fruit nothing, what happens if a man worries about being naked and gets an ego. The fall!

2). All of John is made up; he never said that the Pharisees said it. Why living and then this world of life, be in the control of the devil? Do you r much? Or have you been lied to all your life and made to believe in this to fight against God. Have a look through the John was a Pharisees and points to see what I am saying as it contain blatant lies.

3). Dude I love you bro, and I was the same I had been brainwashed my s yet really and this will take a lot of work on your side, you will have to g your own research, as almost all of the Pharisee doctrine is incorrect; th of John or Paul are worth mentioning. The reason I say a lot of work, is understand all points I mean. I could probably put many into words for yo what is of Christ and God and what isn t then it is hard to see. You see t God, John does; in fact if you read Christ said he was a prophet and is may help a bit showing you where the scriptures are.

4). If I do make a point and break it, it is to show all sides of an argume this I am trying to put forth isn t as a lot is hearsay from past generation

5). Dude bro, I am the angel in Revelations 10; my name is the new name name of the father. Yes I am trying on the net as I felt it would be a goo better and when I say these things to people in reality they are like wow across with the faith and authority I do have to say these things, in word bear with me and I will try my best to put it across to be understood.

6). A point that isn t mentioned in what Yeshua said, is that when he fou the wilderness where did this come from, within his own Ego.

7) You really have to decondition your self from previous believes and st unbiased few each time and way things up with logic and love. Wisdom is answer!

8) Have you seen the Freddy films? It is the fear that, give this whole co who really do know God, you would see how daft it is, (not saying you do from this perspective of the life we live in) as God made time and contro You are playing cards with God, and think you have won (devil does) yet game as well as the beginning. So when the cards are put down God alre before they are drawn out of the pack and before the game started. Plus he hadn't made it. Also he can arrange the cards as the cards are him, so he can make the random become as he needs.

So how can anything beat that or challenge that? Only something that comes from infinity, as when you see that, then you realise the game is already finished. So there can be no challenger who ever understood heaven and how God would know this already that they can not win. Who can't see this? We can't see the world of 6th dimension, i.e. matter and gravity as time; we only view linear time. We can roughly see 8th dimension which is infinity on 7th as you are within it. We could never want to play cards with God, man does as we are daft and live in a 3D world. In words we see the matter, yet we don't realise there is up to 13 dimensions (we may know more).

Do you understand what I am trying to say? Saying there is a devil is all about power, how did it exist? Oops God made a mistake? No God made the world. From within man we made this force, the more we fight against our self the more we grow. What will try and the world is now is happening mans ego, what has told us to go to war? Us, in fact it says a place in Israel and we changed it. So all along these things, why do we have global warming, hurricanes ect, as man needs to chop forest for his ego and possessions. Why is there poverty, as one has money and his ego, or we have big companies feeling they are doing something for poor people jobs? When before the factory came they had farms and when they needed to work in the factory to keep up with mans ego. Babylon is man is something to show off his ego.

I pray you can understand what I am trying to say, please make your self your original heart, you will see.
